"Health" requests the Superintendent of Poliee to look at the situation of several alleys, gutters, and yards, and apply a proper remedy as the weather is yet warm, and cholera hovering around neighboring cities.

THE ALEXANDRIA CANAL -A heavy force is now employed by the enterprising and ener getic lessees of the Alexandria Canal, in preparing that important work for an early resumption of navigation. The late rains have led to the discovery of several minor imperfections in some of the culverts, but if the injuries to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, are as serious as represented, these, together with the repairs to the aqueduct, and its immediate neighborhood, will be completed in time to receive the first boat that arrives at Georgetown from Cumberland.

by Hill Cemetery. - The committee apsointed some time since to collect subscriptions for the purpose of enclosing Ivy Hill Ceme tery, are now calling on the lot holders and citizens generally for aid. Already liberal sams have been given towards this laudable and very desirable object, and we bespeake for the committee liberal donations from a generous public. We learn as soon as the Cemetery is enclosed, many of its lots are to be surrounded with handsome iron railings, and that monuments are to be erected there, and the grounds to be much improved.

Social Hop.-The social hop of the Eintracht Dramatic Association of Alexandria, at their rooms, in Washington Hall, last night, was one of the most agreeable reunions of the commencing gay season. A large number, including many of those enumerated among the fashion and beauty of the city, were present, and the evening's pleasures afforded unalloyed enjoyment to all who participated in them.

Released,-The negro girl Sarah Jane Phoenix, lately committed to jail in this city, charged with murdering her infant child, and who was delivered to the authorities of Fairiax county this morning, was examined by Justice Daniel F. Lewis, and discharged, for CEMETERIES .- Ground is being enclosed at PointLookout, for two cometeries, one for the inment of the remains of Confederate soldiers, who died at that place during the war, and one for the remains of the Federal troops.

THE LYLE'S' MURDERERS.—Two weeks from te-morrow, the four negro men arrested in this city, for the mura wer the late William Lyles, Esq. of Auburn, Prince George's county, Md., will be hung, at Upper Mastlboro.
